I Hate My Neck

Description As life brings us to the time when the body loses its elasticity and shine, it feels like the body betrays us, and we suffer. Jung recognizes aging as a time for initiation to a new, inner relationship. This program will emphasize Jung's work and the challenges in the second half of life. We will begin with a brief discussion of Nora Efron's book, I Feel Bad About My Neck.

Join us as we explore the subject of aging, its challenges and the creativity in the myth of Baubo, the Crone.

Dates Two Wednesdays: November 12th & 19th

Time 7:00pm to 9:00pm

Cost $80 members/$100 nonmembers. Registration is for entire series. You must pay in advance.
Participation is limited to 10 registrants.

Deadline Payment must be received by November 6, 2008

CEU's CEU's are NOT available for this program

Facilitator Rosemarie Paini, Ph.D. is a psychotherapist in private practice in Lyndhurst, OH. She served as president and treasurer on Jung Cleveland Board of Trustees. She is also interested in the challenges of aging for women.

Location This program will be held at a private residence in Cleveland Heights. Location information will be emailed to paid participants.
